Dear Jon,

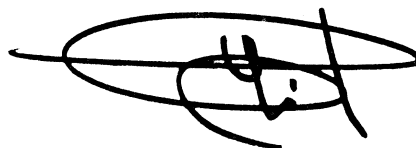

Today, I had the pleasure of reading Joseph Workman's graphic translation of the Ragione and Pazzia article on which your play was based. The Workman Theatre is, indeed, greatly indebted to you - as we all are.

As a sma' token of our appreciation, and on Cynthia's suggestion, I am sending you a copy of the TPH. book which is about to be remaindered.

I enjoyed working with you in the Archives and hope that you will keep in touch. As you know, we need all the help we can get.

With all good wishes

Yours sincerely,
